The Stan manages to invoke every human emotion there is. Dan Talley's ability to write with honesty and show humor at times when most people would scream or cry shows how much he actually does understands about the human mindset. Join Dale in his and his family's struggles in their search to discover life after service to one's country, a country that doesn't yet understand what's expected of our soldiers. A must read for anyone dealing with personal struggles and looking for a way to find normal through tools learned by one of our nations unspoken heroes.
